Mmmmmmmmm Numb. 5257

The Daily Courant.

Wedneſday, Auguſt 27. 1718.

London, Auguſt 27.

Yeſterday arriv'd the Mails from France and Holland.

From the Amſt. Gazette, dated Sept. 2.

Vienna, Auguſt 20.

PRINCE Frederick of Bavaria is gone by Poſt to Prague, and the Prince of Bevern is gone to the Court of Wolfumbuttel. We have Letters from Belgrade of the 15th of this Month which ſay, that as ſoon as the Grand Vizier heard of the Signing of the Treaty, he immediately named an Aga to come hither in Quality of Ambaſſadour from the Porte. The Emperour has not yet named the Miniſter whom he will ſend thither, but 'tis underſtood that either Count Colloredo or the Count de Virmond, will go in Quality of Imperial Ambaſſadour to Conſtantinople. Prince Eugene has had ſome Fits of a Fever, occaſion'd by the great Heats he endur'd in Hungary, but he takes no other Medicines than Reſt, and 'tis hop'd it will ſoon go off. According to the laſt Advices from Hungary, three Regiments are ſent to Eſſeck, three to Peterwaradin, and two to the Bannate of Temeſwaer. The Miniſter of the King of Pruſſia in this Court has declar'd, that the King his Maſter intends to make all his Efforts, in Concert with His Britannick Majeſty, to procure an Accommodation between the Duke of Mecklemburg and his Nobility; and if that Prince refuſes to agree to it, his Pruſſian Majeſty will join his Troops to thoſe deſign'd for the Execution of the Imperial Mandate.

From the Amſt. Courant, dated Sept. 3.

Francfort, Aug. 28. Concerning the Affair of Rhynfels, 'tis now ſaid that the Landgrave of Heſſe Caſſel has taken a Reſolution to give up that Fortreſs, and has already ſent Order to remove from thence the Artillery and Ammunition that belong to him; as alſo that the Militia, who for guarding the Frontiers were in Arms, have receiv'd Orders to ſeparate and return home, but that the Regular Heſſian Troops ſhall remain in their preſent Poſts, till ſuch Time as the Troops of the Circle who were employ'd upon the Execution, are return'd home. But we underſtand that new Difficulties are ariſen thereupon, in regard that it is begun to be ſaid, that the Circle Troops deſign'd for the Execution, will not draw off till the Charges of the Expedition, which amounts to ſome Hundred Thouſand Florins, be refunded.

Hamburgh, Aug. 30. The Report that the Duke of Mecklemburg has been here and ſpoke with the Count de Fuchs proves groundleſs; for that Prince ſtill remains at Roſtock, where he is ſetting out the Fortifications of that Place, and collecting in the Taxations he has laid upon the Country, which he continues to extort without any Regard to the Execution.

From the Amſt. Courant, dated Sept. 1.

Paris, Aug. 26. We ſee here an Arrêt of the Parliament of the 12th Inſtant, containing, That they have order'd and do hereby order, that the Old and New Ordonnances, the Edicts for ſettling the Offices of the Finances, and the Patent of the 22d of May, 1716. for eſtabliſhing a Bank, and the Regulation thereof, ſhall be put in Execution, provided the Bank abide by the Conditions mention'd in the ſaid Patent, according to which the Directors, Superviſors, Treaſurers, Caſhiers, and all others employ'd in the ſaid Bank, are forbid directly or indirectly to keep in the ſaid Bank any of the King's Money, to make Uſe thereof for the Account of the ſaid Bank, or to permit any Profit or Advantage to be made thereof by any Perſon under them, upon the Penalties expreſs'd in the ſaid Ordonnance. It is alſo ordain'd, that the King's Money ſhall be immediately remitted to the reſpective Offices of Receipt accountable for the ſame, in order to be iſſued by them in Execution of their Offices; and all the ſaid Officers and others who have the Adminiſtration of the Finances, ſhall in their Perſons and Eſtates be anſwerable, each in his reſpective Place, for all the Money paſſing through their Hands, which they have converted into Bank or other Bills. Moreover, it is forbid, that Strangers, even although they are naturaliz'd, ſhall meddle with, or in any manner, directly or indirectly, in their own or other Names, have any Part or Share in the Adminiſtration of the King's Monies, upon the Penalties expreſs'd in the Ordonnances, Declarations and Arrêts. And further, it is required of the King's Attorney General, that he aſſiſt in the Execution of this preſent Arrêt, and to that Purpoſe it is ordained that Commiſſion be given him to inform himſelf of all Contraventions hereunto, and to proceed thereupon according to the Merit of the Cauſe.

The Parliament have ſince been almoſt daily aſſembled upon Publick Affairs, and 'tis ſaid that on the 22d they made another Arrêt, expreſſing that in order to ſecure the Fund of the Weſt-India Company, it was neceſſary to know whether they proceed to Tally or Indent the Regiſters of their Cheſt, with the State-Bills that are brought to them, and whether theſe are raſed or deſtroy'd according to the Promiſes given. The ſaid Parliament have cited Mr. Laws, who is Governour of the Bank, before them, and he not appearing, they have iſſued a Capias for arreſting him, wherefore he is oblig'd to retire to the Palais Royal, from whence he dare not ſtir out; but he is in Expectation of an Arrêt of the Council, which will protect him againſt that of the Parliament. The General Farm of the King's Revenue is rais'd up to 48200000 Livres, and 'tis believ'd that on Monday next they will be contracted for. But the Farm of the Tobacco is not yet fix'd.

From the Amſt. Courant, dated Sept. 3.

Paris, Aug. 30. The Sieur de Granges having on Friday laſt brought a Letter to the Parliament, requiring them to attend the King, they went accordingly in their Formalities to the Palace of the Tuilleries. The Princes of the Blood, the Dukes and Peers, and the Marſhals of France, were alſo call'd thither, to aſſiſt in the Solemn Court of Juſtice there held by the King. The principal Matters tranſacted, were, 1. A Patent was deliver'd to M. d'Argerçon to confirm him in the Office of Keeper of the Seal, and in that of Comptroller General of the Finances. 2. Several Arrêts of the Parliament were annull'd; and they were forbid hereafter to meddle with State Affairs without the King's Leave, as alſo to Remonſtrate againſt the King's Edicts, except it be done within eight Days. 3. The Duke du Maine was remov'd from the Superintendancy of the King's Education, the Dignity of Prince of the Blood, and the Honours thereunto belonging; and he has no other Quality left to him, than Duke and Peer according to the Seniority of his Patent. And the Superintendancy of the King's Education was given to the Duke of Bourbon. 4. The Dignity of Prince of the Blood was continued to the Count de Toulouſe during his Life, in Conſideration of the Services he has perform'd for the Crown, but without granting his Deſcendants the ſame Honour. The French Guards were on this Occaſion poſted on all Sides the Palace, and in other Parts. Notwithſtanding that the Parliament were forbid to aſſemble without the King's Leave, they met together on Saturday Morning, upon Pretence of admitting ſome new Members, but this Aſſembly laſted only a few Hours. And the next Day, although it was Sunday, they aſſembled extraordinarily; and it is ſaid, it was in order to proteſt againſt what was done on Friday at the Louvre. The Duke du Maine went out of the Palace of the Tuilleries by Eight a Clock on Saturday Morning; and the ſame Day by Noon all his

Good

Goods were remov'd; he lay that Night at the House of M. Camaran, and departed the next with his Dutchess to Sceaux. The Count de Toulouse has given up the Dignity of Prince of the Blood, being not willing to hold it after it was taken away from his Brother. On Saturday the Duke of Bourbon was install'd in the Office of Superintendant of the King's Education. We see here an Arrêt of the King's Council of State, containing, that the Currency of the Old Gold Species shall be suppress'd on the 1st of September next; but that the Silver Species shall be allowed to pass all the Month of September.

From the Paris News Letter.

Paris, Sept. 3. The Remonstrance made by the Parliament to the King on Monday last was as follows. "Sire, We have heard this Morning that "last Night three of our Magistrates have been "taken up, which has the more surpriz'd us, be-"cause they have appear'd so far from being cul-"pable, that they are those who with the most "Integrity have paid Respect to the Orders of "your Majesty in your Parliament; which obliges "us, Sire, to lay our selves at your Majesty's Feet, "to desire with all possible Respect, the Liberty "of our Brethren. Clemency being the Virtue "the most beautiful that a great Prince can posses, "makes us hope that your Majesty will have Re-"gard to our Request, and render the Justice "which we most humbly demand of your Ma-"jesty." The Answer was thus. "The King "will have his Authority respected. And the "Manner wherein the Parliament shall comport it "self in this Conjuncture, will make known his "Majesty's Intentions hereupon.

The King has since given Orders for recalling these three Prisoners, and they are to return forthwith.

'Tis reported, that the Son of Admiral Byng has pass'd thro' this City in his way from Turin to London: And we understand that the Spanish Fleet has been beaten by the English.

The Royal Chymical Wash-Balls for the Hands and Face, are removed from Mr. Lambert's, the Glovers, to prevent the Publick's being imposed on by Counterfeits, which are not only ineffectual but may also prove dangerous, and are now sold only at Mr. Allcroft's Toyshop at the Blue-Coat-Boy against the Royal Exchange in Cornhill, and at Mrs. Giles's, Millener, next Hercules-Pillars-Alley by the Temple. They have above these Ten Years been largely experienc'd, and highly commended, for making the Skin so delicately soft and smooth, as not to be paralled'd by either Wash, Powder, Cosmetick, &c. being indeed real Beautifiers of the Skin, taking off all Deformities, as Tetters, Ring-worms, Morphew, Sun-burn, Scurf, Pimples, Pits or Redness of the Small-pox, keeping it of a lasting and extream Whiteness. They soon alter red or rough Hands; are admirable in Shaving the Head, not only giving a more exquisite sharpness to the Razor, but so comfort the Brain and Nerves, as to prevent catching Cold. They are of a grateful and pleasant Scent, without the least Grain of Mercury. Price 1 s. each.

A certain Cure for Founder'd Horses, by an excellent Chymical Secret, which immediately takes away all Pains and Anguish in their Feet, and all burning Heat and parching Dryness, suppling and cooling them to Admiration, and causing them to become kindly Moist and Easy, and the Hoof to grow naturally wide, so as not to pinch them, making those Horses, that before could scarce stand, or when they did, stood with all their four Feet crumpling up together, able to stand and tread out freely and boldly without the least Pain, Uneasiness or Lameness: Those that are but a little Hot in their Feet, it presently sets up and recovers; and those exceeding bad, it effectually Cures in a short Time, making them as perfectly firm and sound in their Feet as ever, as the Author has for many Years past experienced. It to be had only at Mr. Bell's, a Bookseller, at the Cross Keys and Bible in Cornhill near Stocks Market, at 3 s. 6 d. a Glass, with Directions.
